The development of this test was supported in part by NIH Grant No. NS24875 from NIH-NINDS.

Mary Jeanette, M.D.
Beverly Milkowski, Ph.D.
Julie Bernard, Ph.D.

Authors

Department of Otolaryngology - Head and Neck Surgery Indiana University School of Medicine Minimal Falls Test
Supplementary feature score sheet has been developed for the purpose. A compact score sheet is included in the form of an appendix. The score sheet is included in the form of an appendix. The number of score points corresponding to each of the possible options can be easily utilized. A single score sheet is included in the form of an appendix.

Section One:

1. It is difficult to make any corrections with the vocabulary. The phrase can be eliminated, and not least, if necessary, it can be
2. The examiner showed us the set of rules to carry out our examination that correspond to the rule number.
3. When the rules of the examination are carried out, the number of score points are
4. The examiner asked to open the world of the examiner. A name or
5. The examiner is asked to open the world of the examiner. A name or
6. The examiner is asked to open the world of the examiner. A name or
7. The examiner is asked to open the world of the examiner. A name or
8. The examiner is asked to open the world of the examiner. A name or
9. The examiner is asked to open the world of the examiner. A name or
10. The examiner is asked to open the world of the examiner. A name or

For confirmation, the text: The first two phrases are placed directly in front of the child (The number of phrases).
shoe

2
mom

bomb
cat

pat
goat

coat
boot

beet
mat

bar
leaf

laugh
boot

beet
two
bat

pat
mom

bomb
coat

goat
pie

tie
pear

bear
bee

boo
leaf

laugh
key

pea
goat

coat
laugh

leaf
shell

fell
pear

bear
boo

bee
van

fan
two

shoe
pea

paw
pat

bat
bomb

mom
coat

goat
pie

tie
bear

pear
beet

boot
laugh

leaf
shell

fell
pat

bat
pool

pill